Dumfries Chief of Police Calvin L. Johnson Announces Retirement

Chief Calvin L. Johnson has announced his retirement from the Town of Dumfries Police Department effective August 1, 2010. Chief Johnson began his career as a traditional patrol officer with the department in 1983 and quickly moved up the ranks ultimately earning the Chief's title. Chief Johnson has earned numerous awards of recognition and distinction throughout his tenure with the Town.

Chief Johnson retires after serving 27 years with the Dumfries Police Department. Chief Johnson stated,

“I am looking forward to retirement and spending time with family and pursuing other activities including business opportunities and second career options, as well as motorcycle riding and various other leisure activities and hobbies. I'm grateful for the support of Town Council and the honor bestowed upon me to serve as Chief of Police. I'd like to thank the Dumfries community at large; it's been my privilege to serve the Town. Lastly, I'd be remiss if I did not acknowledge my department staff as well as each employee of the Town. It's been a privilege to serve alongside each of you!”

Town Manager, Kimberly Alexander stated, “The Town will be forever grateful to Chief Johnson for his many years of loyal and dedicated service to the Dumfries community, and we wish him the very best in his future endeavors.”

Chief Johnson and his family are planning on staying in Virginia during retirement.
